

How To Make Your Own Bear Towel!

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

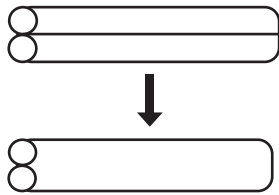

1 towel 1 large rubber band 2 small rubber bands 1 piece of ribbon

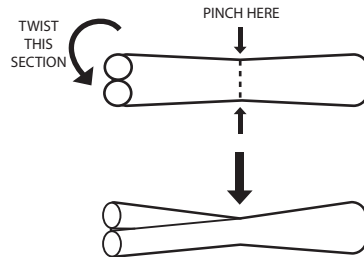

STEP 1: Lay the towel flat. Take the left third of the towel and fold towards the center.

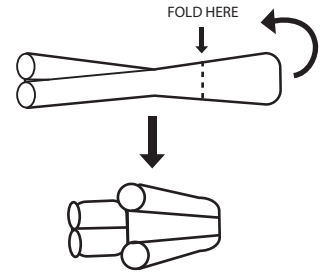

STEP 2: Roll the top and bottom towards the middle so they meet in the center.

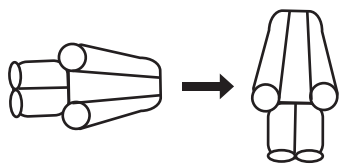

STEP 3: Flip the towel over.

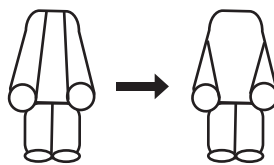

STEP 4: Pinch the towel in the middle, and twist the left portion around.

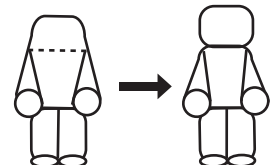

STEP 5: Fold the right side a third of the way over, and nestle the top rolls on each side of the bottom rolls.

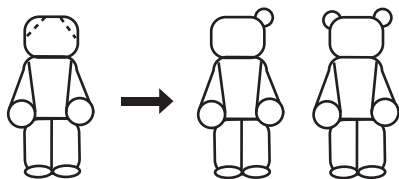

STEP 6: Rotate the towel 90° counter clockwise. You will start to see the legs and arms of the bear!

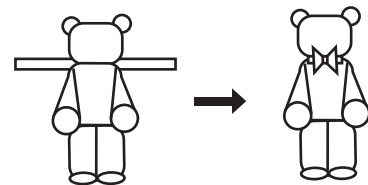

STEP 7: Slightly unroll the tops of the arms to form the head of the bear.

STEP 8: Use the large rubber band and wrap above the arms to form the head.

STEP 9: Use the small rubber bands and wrap at the corners of the head to form the ears.

STEP 10: Tie the ribbon around the bear's neck to hide the large rubber band. Display your work!
